Edvard Elgar: Nimrod fra Enigma Variationerne

“The value of culture cannot be expressed only with statistics.
Audience numbers give us a poor picture of how culture enriches us”

John Holden, Capturing Cultural Value

Det kulturelle
værdisystem

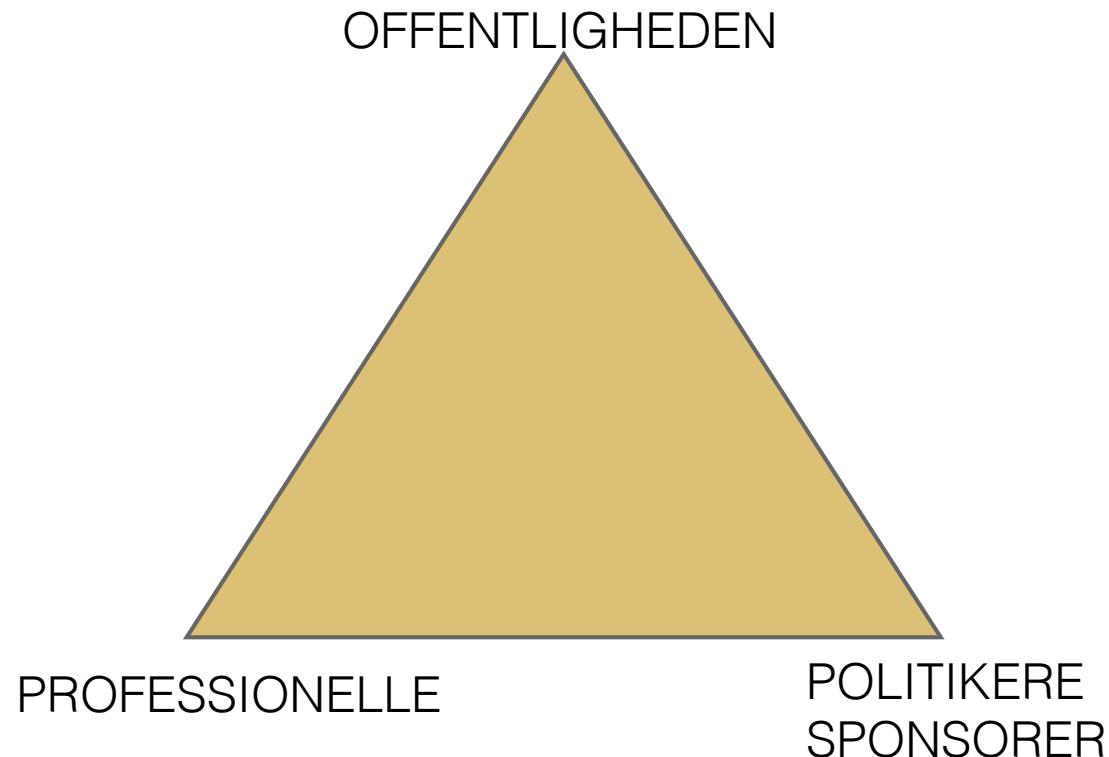

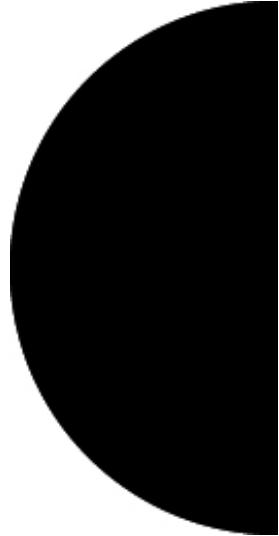

Det kulturelle værdisystem

“On the whole, when it comes to culture the public do not directly care much (although indirectly they may care very much) about the things that politicians worry about: economic regeneration, social inclusion, healthy communities and the rest”

John Holden, Cultural Value and the crisis of legitimacy

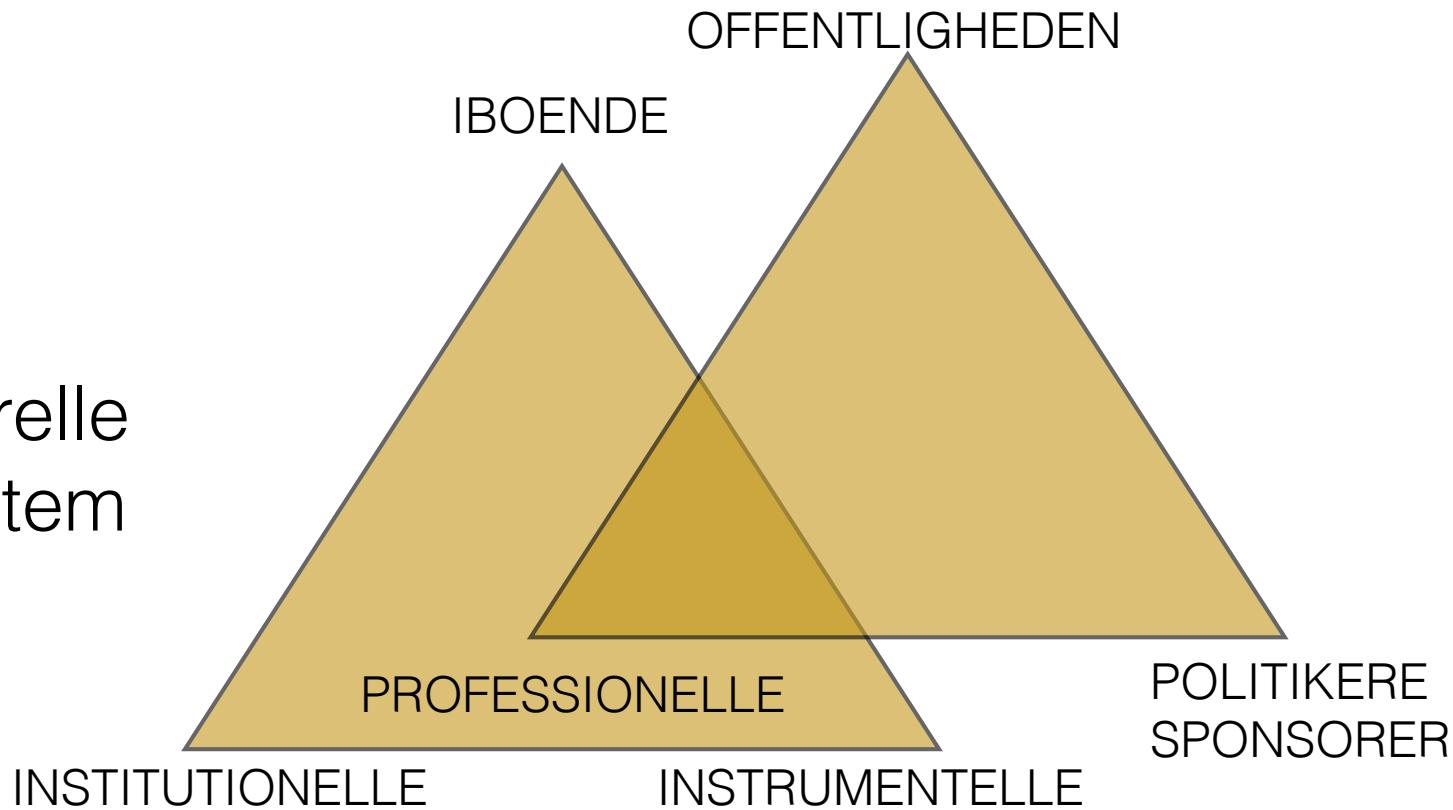

“My argument is that such legitimacy is a precondition for securing a larger, and more secure, place for culture in our wider public life... Creating such legitimacy will depend on institutional innovation that engages the public in understanding and contributing to the creation of cultural value.
Encouraging such innovation by the full range of institutions and practitioners should be the principal aim of any structural reform of arts funding and policy”.

Improvisation > < Partitur

“Det, som flytter mennesker, er ikke, fornuft og logik, logos, som allerede Aristoteles talte om. Det, som skaber forandringer og bevægelser, altså udvikling, er patos, passionen, begejstringen, kampen og spændingen”
